

Unusual Art

Fine Arts Study Guide Version 3.1

©The Rockford Quiz Bowl Company 2025 · rockfordqb.com

Visual art outside the common labels of "paintings" or "sculptures."

Art Form	Artists	Works
engraving / printmaking / woodcut	carving lines into a metal or wooden plate, which is then inked and pressed onto paper or cloth to make prints; when using wood, this technique is sometimes called woodcut, and is considered distinct from true engraving; a specific type of woodblock printing is ukiyo-e, a Japanese system of multicolor printmaking using interlocking wooden blocks whose name means "pictures of the floating world"	Albrecht Dürer Knight, Death, and the Devil Melencolia I Saint Jerome in His Study Hokusai Thirty-six Views of Mount Fuji, a series that includes the prints The Great Wave off Kanagawa and Fine Wind, Clear Morning installation	environmental, multimedia art that occupies an area near and around the viewer, and that may be interactive	Christo and Jeanne-Claude The Gates (located in Central Park Wrapped Reichstag (located in Berlin) Judy Chicago The Dinner Party Robert Smithson Spiral Jetty (located in the Great Salt Lake) performance art	an artwork created by the artist's physical actions, usually in a public place; may be interactive	Yoko Ono Cut Piece (observers were permitted to cut off pieces of Ono's clothes as she sat alone on a stage) Marina Abramovic The Artist is Present (Abramovic sat still at a wooden table, across from an empty wooden chair where observers were permitted to sit and make eye contact) mobile	a form of kinetic (moving) sculpture suspended from a ceiling	Alexander Calder Lobster Trap and Fish Tail
readymade	multimedia art created from found objects	Marcel Duchamp Fountain (a sideways urinal) silkscreen print	a form of printing that uses a mesh screen to transfer paint to a paper or cloth; screen printing allows mass production of the same image, which made it a staple of the Pop Art movement	Andy Warhol Campbell's Soup Cans Marilyn Diptych other portraits of Marilyn Monroe and Mao Zedong